

tour wraps up 2024 in style We are thrilled to share the success of our

Navarino's Make I.T. Happen

presentations and updates from some of the most prominent names in the industry, including Cobham, Eutelsat-Oneweb, Inmarsat-Viasat, Intellian, Intelsat, Iridium, and Starlink. Attendees had the unique opportunity to raise questions directly & to engage in discussions about how these innovators are shaping the future of maritime connectivity, in partnership with Navarino.

which was held at the Athens SNFCC in December. This highly anticipated occasion brought together over 200 industry leaders, maritime innovators, and forward-thinking professionals to explore the latest advancements in connectivity and maritime IT solutions.

recent Make I.T. Happen customer event, navigation solutions Navarino is excited to announce the launch of Navarino Elements, a newly established entity specialising in maritime pavigation systems and Navarino launches Elements:

dedicated to maritime bridge maritime navigation systems and electronics. Navarino Elements will cater specifically to the Bridge & Navigation sector, providing an extensive suite of advanced services and products.

Read More

region. This new expansion marks an important milestone for Navarino as it continues to enhance its global establishment of its newest subsidiary in Dubai, strategically its growing client base across the located in the Middle East to support footprint and deliver localized, highquality services to its partners and customers.

Located at The Dome Tower, Cluster N, Floor 35 in Jumeirah Lake Towers, the Dubai subsidiary, will play a crucial role in delivering Navarino's innovative communication solutions, digital transformation tools, and support services to the maritime sector in the region.

Read More

Under the guidance of Group ICT Manager Rob Frenks, Vroon has company with 65 vessels, is at the forefront of this shift.

partnered with Navarino to equip its modern fleet with state-of-theart IT management solutions, bringing on board an advanced, reliable digital ecosystem.

Read More

OUR TREE HUB INITIATIVE
For every Starlink you activate with us, we plant 50 trees.

and connectivity

pullbeing at sea

India and a sea of the sea of Navarino backs Sailor Society research on connectivity's role in crew welfare.

internet access and seafarer

With thanks to our report sponsors

Navarino is proud to support Sailors' Society's "State of the Industry Snapshot" report, on the critical connection between well-being.

Read More

Read More

across its fleet.

(navarino

connectivity company, offering innovative solutions worldwide

